

Manuscript preparation checklists

Use these checklists as a guide to help you prepare, submit and revise your manuscript for publication in a CSIRO Publishing journal.

BEFORE YOU START

- ☐ My article fits the journal's scope
- ☐ My article is not under consideration or published elsewhere
- ☐ I have consulted both general and journal-specific author instructions
- ☐ I have read the CSIRO Publishing policies
- ☐ I have checked APC-free Open Access eligibility via Read and Publish agreements

WHEN YOU ARE READY TO SUBMIT

- ☐ I have written a cover letter
- ☐ I have provided eight or more keywords
- ☐ Author names and affiliations are correct
- ☐ I have current email addresses for all authors (for ScholarOne)
- ☐ The corresponding author is clearly identified
- ☐ All required author statements (conflicts of interest, funding, data availability) are included
- ☐ Ethics approvals are provided or explained if not required
- ☐ All references are cited in text and listed in the reference list
- ☐ The manuscript meets word count and formatting requirements
- ☐ Line numbers are included
- ☐ Figures are at high resolution, are clearly labelled, and captions are included
- ☐ I have included a link to any preprint of my work
- ☐ I have anonymised my manuscript if I am submitting to a double-anonymised review journal

WHEN YOU ARE REVISING YOUR WORK AFTER REVIEW

- ☐ I have prepared a clean version, with all reviewer comments addressed [Main document]
- ☐ I have prepared a tracked version, with all edits included
- ☐ Eight keywords are provided
- ☐ The order of author names and affiliations matches in the manuscript and ScholarOne

- ☐ My co-authors have linked their ORCIDs to their ScholarOne accounts as these cannot be added after acceptance
- ☐ The corresponding author is clearly identified on the paper and in ScholarOne
- ☐ Funding sources are listed consistently in ScholarOne and the manuscript, with grant numbers included where possible
- ☐ My abstract follows formatting and word limit requirements
- ☐ A short summary and image are included (if required)
- ☐ High-resolution figures are provided as separate files, with figure captions included in the manuscript
- ☐ Tables and equations are editable
- ☐ Figures and tables are cited in the manuscript
- ☐ The reference list is correctly formatted and matches in-text citations
- ☐ All required author statements are included
- ☐ Permissions have been obtained for any third-party material
- ☐ Supplementary files (if applicable) are included separately
- ☐ All individuals mentioned in the Acknowledgements have provided their permission
